Plain-language overview

Use the Site responsibly, protect your account, submit only content you are allowed to use, and remember that AI feedback and practice scores are educational estimates - not official DECA judging results.

1. Acceptance of These Terms

These Terms of Service (the “Terms”) govern access to and use of the CHHS DECA Resource Hub located at <https://chhsdeca-gkmjm4ge.manus.space>, including its pages, accounts, resource libraries, practice tools, scoring features, AI-generated feedback, and related services (collectively, the “Site”).

By accessing or using the Site, you agree to these Terms and the Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, do not use the Site. If you use the Site on behalf of a school, chapter, team, or other organization, you represent that you are authorized to accept these Terms for that organization.

2. Who May Use the Site

The Site is intended primarily for high-school students, chapter members, advisors, educators, and other users seeking educational resources related to career and technical student organizations and business competitions.

You must be at least 13 years old to create an account or submit personal information. If you are under the age of legal majority where you live, you may use the Site only with permission from a parent or legal guardian. A parent, guardian, teacher, or advisor who permits a minor to use the Site is responsible for supervising that use.

3. The Site and Educational Purpose

The Site provides educational resources that may include event guidance, practice materials, chapter resources, document analysis, speech or presentation feedback, estimated scoring, and other study tools. Features may be added, changed, suspended, or removed at any time.

The Site may reference DECA, schools, chapters, competitions, rubrics, or third-party organizations. Unless expressly stated by the applicable organization, such references do not mean that the Site is sponsored, approved, endorsed, or operated by DECA Inc., Texas DECA, any school district, or any school.

4. Accounts and Account Security

- Provide accurate and current registration information.
- Keep passwords and access links confidential and do not share accounts.
- Notify the Site team promptly if you believe an account has been accessed without permission.
- Do not impersonate another person, chapter, school, judge, advisor, or organization.
- You are responsible for activity conducted through your account, except to the extent caused by the Site's own security failure.

5. AI Feedback, Practice Scores, and Competition Results

Some features may use artificial intelligence or automated methods to analyze written work, speeches, presentations, answers, or other submissions. AI-generated feedback can be incomplete, inaccurate, inconsistent, or based on assumptions. It should be treated as one educational input and reviewed by a qualified teacher, advisor, coach, or other knowledgeable person.

Any score, ranking, prediction, recommendation, or qualification estimate produced by the Site is unofficial. It does not represent a score from DECA, a competition judge, a school, or any governing organization, and it does not guarantee advancement, awards, eligibility, compliance with current rules, or any particular result.

Competition rules and rubrics may change. Users are responsible for checking the current official rules, deadlines, eligibility requirements, originality requirements, citation standards, and event guidelines before submitting competition work.

6. User Content and Submissions

“User Content” means text, documents, slides, audio, video, images, answers, comments, feedback, profile information, and other material submitted to or through the Site.

You keep ownership of your User Content. You grant the Site a limited, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to host, store, reproduce, transmit, format, analyze, and display User Content only as reasonably necessary to operate, secure, support, and improve the Site and provide the requested features. This license ends when the content is deleted, except for backup copies, de-identified information, legal retention, or content that has already been shared at your direction.

You represent that you have the necessary rights and permissions to submit User Content and that its use by the Site as described in these Terms will not violate another person's rights, competition rules, school policies, confidentiality obligations, or applicable law.

Do not upload sensitive or restricted material

Do not submit Social Security numbers, government identification numbers, financial account information, passwords, medical records, disciplinary records, confidential student records, trade secrets, or other information that is not reasonably necessary for the educational feature you are using. Remove personal details about other people unless you have permission to include them.

7. Academic Integrity and Acceptable Use

The Site is designed to support learning and revision, not to misrepresent authorship or bypass competition, classroom, or school rules. You remain responsible for the originality, accuracy, citations, permissions, and final submission of your work.

- Do not submit AI-generated or third-party content as your own when rules or policies prohibit it.
- Do not use the Site to cheat on an active exam, obtain restricted test content, or evade proctoring or access controls.
- Do not upload malware, harmful code, or files intended to disrupt or compromise the Site.
- Do not attempt to bypass security, rate limits, permissions, or account restrictions.
- Do not scrape, copy, or automatically collect Site content or user data without written permission.
- Do not harass, threaten, exploit, discriminate against, or reveal private information about another person.
- Do not use the Site for unlawful, fraudulent, deceptive, or commercially exploitative activity.
- Do not use the Site to generate or distribute content that infringes copyright, trademark, privacy, publicity, or other rights.

8. School, Chapter, and Advisor Use

A school, chapter, or advisor that invites students to use the Site is responsible for obtaining any permissions required by school policy or law, providing appropriate supervision, and deciding whether the Site is suitable for its students. The Site is not intended to serve as an official student information system, gradebook, permanent education-record repository, or substitute for required school data-protection procedures.

When a user joins a chapter, class, or team workspace, the applicable advisor or administrator may be able to view the user's profile, activity, submissions, feedback, and progress within that workspace. Users should confirm the workspace's visibility before submitting content.

9. Intellectual Property

The Site's original design, software, organization, branding, and original content are owned by or licensed to the Site operator and are protected by applicable intellectual-property laws. Subject to these Terms, users receive a limited, revocable, non-transferable right to access and use the Site for personal, educational, and chapter-related purposes.

DECA names, logos, event names, rubrics, publications, and other third-party materials are owned by their respective rights holders. Nothing in these Terms transfers ownership of third-party intellectual property. Users may not reproduce, sell, publish, or redistribute protected materials unless authorized by the rights holder or permitted by law.

10. Third-Party Services and Links

The Site may rely on or link to third-party services, including hosting, authentication, storage, analytics, email, document-processing, and artificial-intelligence providers. Third-party services are governed by their own terms and privacy practices. The Site is not responsible for third-party websites, services, content, availability, or security, except as required by law.

11. Privacy

The Privacy Policy explains how information is collected, used, disclosed, retained, and protected. By using the Site, you acknowledge the practices described in that policy.

12. Suspension and Termination

The Site may restrict, suspend, or terminate access when reasonably necessary to protect users, enforce these Terms, address security or legal concerns, respond to school or advisor requests, or discontinue a feature. Where practical, the Site may provide notice and an opportunity to correct the issue.

You may stop using the Site at any time and may request account deletion through the contact method on the Site. Sections that by their nature should survive termination - including ownership, disclaimers, limitations of liability, and dispute provisions - will remain in effect.

13. Disclaimers

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE SITE IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." THE SITE OPERATOR DISCLAIMS ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF ACCURACY, RELIABILITY, AVAILABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND RESULTS.

The Site operator does not promise that the Site will always be available, secure, error-free, current, or compatible with every device or file. No information or feedback from the Site constitutes legal, academic, financial, medical, or professional advice.

14. Limitation of Liability

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE SITE OPERATOR AND ITS STUDENT DEVELOPERS, VOLUNTEERS, ADVISORS, CONTRIBUTORS, AND SERVICE PROVIDERS WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, OR FOR LOST DATA, LOST OPPORTUNITIES, LOST AWARDS, REPUTATIONAL HARM, OR INTERRUPTION OF USE, ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO THE SITE.

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, TOTAL LIABILITY FOR ALL CLAIMS RELATING TO THE SITE WILL NOT EXCEED THE GREATER OF (A) THE AMOUNT YOU PAID TO USE THE SITE DURING THE TWELVE MONTHS BEFORE THE CLAIM OR (B) ONE HUNDRED U.S. DOLLARS. Some jurisdictions do not allow certain limitations, so portions of this section may not apply to you.

15. Responsibility for Misuse

To the extent permitted by law, you are responsible for claims, losses, or expenses resulting from your unlawful use of the Site, your violation of these Terms, or your infringement of another person's rights. This section does not require a minor to assume obligations that cannot legally be imposed on a minor.

16. Governing Law and Disputes

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflict-of-law principles. Before filing a formal claim, the parties agree to make a good-faith effort to resolve the issue informally through the Site's contact method. Any court proceeding that is not resolved informally must be brought in a court with jurisdiction where the Site operator is located, unless applicable consumer law requires otherwise.

17. Changes to These Terms

The Site may update these Terms to reflect changes in features, law, security, or operations. The "last updated" date will be revised when changes are posted. Material changes may also be communicated through the Site or account contact information. Continued use after the effective date of revised Terms means you accept the revised Terms.

18. General Terms

These Terms and the Privacy Policy form the entire agreement regarding the Site unless a separate written agreement applies. If a provision is found unenforceable, the remaining provisions remain in effect. A failure to enforce a provision is not a waiver. You may not transfer your rights under these Terms without permission; the Site operator may transfer these Terms as part of a reorganization, school transition, or transfer of the Site, subject to applicable law.
